

PUBLIC NOTICE

THIS NOTICE OF INTEREST

This Public notice is made this day 17th Day of February 2020

This Public Notice by Settlor hereby expressly declares and establishes all rights, title and interest to the debt title MHO\50000112.120 any and all prior relationships are withdrawn. All general use and purpose revoked and denied.

TAKE FURTHER NOTICE

Settlor hereby declares and takes claim to all rights, title, interest and possession to the property with title to THE EQUITABLE ASSET, with Special Title: 'GSGPTMHO\50000112.120', and unique tracking number JS769162126GB, and is reserved in the private for special specific confidential purposes only.

Certainty of Intention

It is the intention of the Settlor to create a trust as stated in the terms of the Express Trust. Slalom v Planchon (2004) sets out the principle where a trust was expressly declared. i.e Conscious creation of a trust.

Certainty of Subject Matter

The subject matter is Identified as Equitable Asset/ Special Deposit/Trust Deposit/ Title Number GSGPTMHO\50000112.120: (which is being held in private by the trustee) as per Re: London Wine Co (Shippers) L.T.D (1986) which states it is necessary for trust property to be identifiable.

Certainty of Objects/ Beneficiaries

- a. The beneficiaries are identified as martin james, martin james rice, Martin Rice, MARTIN JAMES RICE, and Martin James Rice, Martin Rice dba MARTIN RICE (or any derivative of commercial title), it is a well established principle of English Law that there must be no uncertainty as to the identity of the beneficiary as per (Morice v Bishop of Durham) (1805)

To create a valid trust these are the three forms of certainty the courts require as above (i) Certainty of Intention (ii) Certainty Of Subject Matter (iii) Certainty of Objects as per the case of Knight v Knight (1840)
